

Box Design

Our competitors' carriers use a basic "U" shaped rail (represented by the red outline) to support the weight of your bike. This "U" shaped design is more likely to twist and bend over time. Our superior box design (represented by the addition of the blue outline) will prevent these movements, allowing you to transport your bike safely with a decreased possibility of twisting or bending. This will extend the life of your carrier.

